"Love Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2011"

The Love Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2011, organized by the CGF and sponsored by the Cyprus Tourism Organization (CTO) was successfully held at Aphrodite Hills Golf Course between April 29 and May 1. The 3-day Open which is a counting event for the WAGR (World Amateur Golf Rankings) of the R&A, attracted a very strong field of 59 players from 15 countries.

After the first day's play the leader was Claas-Eric Borges (DEU) with a 1 under par score of 69, with Mathew Daley (GBR) second with a 3 over par 73, followed by Bradley Cox (GBR) with a 4 over par 74. The second day's play saw Mathew Daley with a level par 70 take the lead on 143, Claas-Eric Borges dropping to second place with a 5 over par 75 on 144 and local member, junior Robert Reynolds (SCO) climbing from sixth place to third, with a very good 2 over par 72 on 148. After a dramatic final day, Mathew Daley won the Championship with a third day score of level par 70 and 213 for the Championship, with young Reynolds playing exceptional golf for his tender age, second with a 3 over par 73 and total score 221, and the Day 1 leader Claas-Eric Borges, third with an 8 over par 78 and total score of 222.
