

CGF Cup 2018

Press Release

Elea Golf Club retain CGF Cup away from home at Secret Valley

88 keen competitors representing 11 on island Clubs teed off on Sunday 3 June at Secret Valley GC, in benign weather conditions, to compete for the 2018 CGF Cup. This is a team prize, with the best six out of eight scores counting for each Club. The course was very well presented, and the competitors were assisted by Volunteers and Referees organized by CGF.

During the course of play, Colin Du Cann–Crowther (Minthis GC) shot a hole in one at the fourth hole. Ironically, unlike the Amateur Opens where CGF sponsor a €10,000 travel voucher prize for a hole in one, this hole was not sponsored and Colin had to settle for a gift Voucher from CGF, and a hefty bar bill to buy other players a drink!

Iona Elliott from Joint Services Golf Club (Episkopi) won the individual prize for Ladies with 36 points. Steve Mitchell (Minthis) won the individual Men's prize with a score of 40 points.

The team prize was very closely contested, with last year's winners (Elea GC) emerging as victors over Minthis by one point. The Elea team celebrated in style, as away victories are infrequent.

Sam Lawson, Captain of Secret Valley GC, thanked CGF for organising this popular event: prizes were presented by Nick Rossides, General Secretary of the CGF.
